

What happens when the wisdom of the elder and the wonder of the child collide in the same sacred space every week?

Promise. Hope. Joy. Depth. Fun.

Cross+Gen Life blends learning, worship and deep care across the generations in a way that no age-segregated classroom or “face the front and listen” worship setting ever could. It is not a curriculum. It is not a program. It is Bible stories meet life. It is little pudgy hands holding old wrinkled hands in prayer. It is a GIFT (generations in faith together) instead of a class. It involves more men than 90% of churches ever involve in Christian education. It is a different way to be the church.

Cross+Gen training is for pastors, Christian education directors, youth workers and church leaders who are:

- + Struggling with sporadic Sunday school attendance
- + Wanting to spend more time in expanding ministries and less time in planning programs and recruiting Sunday School teachers
- + Wishing to make meaningful faith connections between children and their own parents and between Millennials, GenX, Boomers, and elders
- + Interested in exploring a blend of learning, worship and care into one hour in the same sacred space each week - and connecting people of all ages in each others' prayers every night

Join us on Saturday, May 4th from 9:00am – 4:00pm for a full day training session presented by one of the FaithInkubator’s training staff. Join others in our area to discover and discuss how implementing a cross-generational ministry in your church can enrich worship for all ages. We’ll talk about how to get started ... and how to overcome hurdles along the way.

If you’re curious what the buzz about Cross-Generational Ministry is all about please join us!
